DETAILED ACTION

The receipt is acknowledged of applicants' amendment filed 02/15/2007.

Claims 98-102 have been added.

Claims 53-80 have been withdrawn from further consideration.

Claims 81-102 are included in the prosecution.

Response to Amendment

The reply filed on 02/15/2007 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s): the claims as amended created three distinct inventions that require restriction. See 37 CFR 1.111. Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide, applicant is given ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Art Unit: 1615

- I. Claims 81-86, and 98-102, drawn to method of improving cognitive function using transdermal device comprising huperzine in adhesive matrix, classified in class 424, subclass 448.
- II. Claims 87-89, drawn to method of improving cognitive function by transdermal administration of huperzine formulation and hormone, classified in class 424, subclass 449.
- III. Claims 90-97, drawn to method of improving cognitive function by transdermal administration of huperzine formulation and treatment agent selected from antipsychotic, anxiolytic, or antidepressant, classified in class 424, subclass 449.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different designs and consequently different effect. Invention I is distinct from inventions I and III as it requires adhesive matrix and permeation enhancer that are not required by inventions II and III. In addition, inventions II and III require additional active agent administered with huperzine that not required by invention I.

3. Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different designs and consequently different effects because invention II requires hormone that is not required by invention III and invention III requires antipsychotic, anxiolytic, or antidepressant that not required by invention II.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Should applicants elect Invention I, the following species election is required:

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: adhesive matrix: a) acrylate polymer or b) rubber-based pressure sensitive adhesive. The species are independent or distinct because acrylate have different structure and function distinct from rubber-based adhesive, and the prior art that anticipate acrylate polymer may not anticipate rubber-based adhesive.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claim 81 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. Claim 81 is generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species: permeation enhancer: fatty acids, fatty acid esters, fatty alcohols, fatty acid esters of lactic acid, fatty acid esters of glycolic acid, amides, amines, pyrrolidones, glycerol triesters, terpenes. The species are independent or distinct because the different species have different structure and the prior art that anticipate one species may not anticipate the other. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

8. Claim 98 is generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species: glycerol monolaurate, glycerol monolinoleate, glycerol monooleate, isopropyl myristate, isopropyl palmitate, methyl laurate, lauric acid, lauryl alcohol, lauryl lactate, oleic acid, sorbitan monolaurate, sorbitan monooleate, triacetin, terpenes. The species are independent or distinct because the prior art that anticipates one species may not anticipate the other. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
